Allinial Global Continues EMEIA Expansion with New Member Ijewere & Co.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA February 4, 2021 — Allinial Global is pleased to report continued growth in its EMEIA region with the addition of a new member firm in Nigeria, Ijewere & Co.

The largest indigenous firm in Nigeria, Ijewere & Co. has 12 partners, over 100 total staff, and offices in Lagos, Abuja, Asaba, Kaduna, and Port Harcourt. The firm was founded in 1979 by Emmanuel Itoya Ijewere, a past president of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Nigeria (ICAN). It has since grown to be one of the top ten firms in Nigeria.

Ijewere & Co. specializes in tax but also offers services for audit, accounting, consulting, business creation, and training. Serving a mix of small, medium, and large companies, as well as the Nigerian government and NGOs, Ijewere & Co. has expertise in numerous sectors, including banking, financial institutions, hospitality, government agencies, education, oil and gas, and not-for-profit organizations.

"I'm pleased to welcome Ijewere & Co. to the membership and confident that their unique capabilities and commitment to world-class client service will enrich the Allinial Global community. We are looking forward to exciting things for Africa as our EMEIA region continues to grow and evolve."
