Allinial Global Delivers Another AG GO Success Story

ATLANTA, GEORGIA August 12, 2019 – For years, Allinial Global has had the AG Global Opportunities (GO) Secondment Program, and we are pleased to share yet another success story as member firms KNAV & Co. and Bentleys Network have confirmed the details of a staff exchange. Sudhanshu Mewara of KNAV arrived in Australia on Friday to begin a secondment with the Bentleys office in Brisbane.

The AG GO Secondment Program is an excellent recruiting tool that draws upon the worldwide connections of the Allinial Global community to provide opportunities for young and mid-career professionals to develop their business skills while experiencing life in another country and culture. While helping to meet the staffing and personnel needs of both participating firms, the temporary placements and staff exchanges facilitated by this program allow Allinial Global member firms to differentiate themselves as standout employers for young and mid-career professionals seeking valuable global experience.

Depending on the needs and objectives of participating firms and secondees, secondments range from short-term arrangements (less than six months) to long-term (typically six months to two years). As KNAV and Bentleys can attest, the AG GO program is easy to implement and designed to help participating firms prepare secondees for the best experience possible. To that end, the program includes a helpful toolkit with checklists that assist with planning, setting and communicating expectations, obtaining appropriate visas, and handling living arrangements.
