Allinial Global Launches AGBR (AG Brazil)

ATLANTA, GEORGIA September 24, 2019 – Allinial Global recently launched a new concept designed to enhance scale, geographic coverage, and skill sets within a country in order to better serve clients both nationally and globally. We started this concept first with our Brazilian member firms organizing AGBR (AG Brazil), a unique cooperative approach that unites independent firms in Brazil so that they can address common challenges while attracting both inbound opportunities and upstream clients.

To execute the association's vision of building a larger, more cohesive organization under the AGBR (AG Brazil) umbrella, Terry Snyder, Job Dieleman, and Ana Isabel Navarro traveled to Sao Paulo this summer to create the vision and build the model. AG Brazil has already welcomed the following highly capable and growth-oriented members:

- ▶ TATICCA Auditores Independentes S.S. – Sao Paulo, Brazil
- ▶ Unitax Consultoria Tributaria – Sao Paulo, Brazil
- ▶ McBenner Consultoria – Curitiba, Brazil
- ▶ P&L Auditores – Fortaleza, Brazil
- ▶ Chronus – Recife, Brazil

Together, the firms of AG Brazil represent the second largest association in Brazil, with more independent firms to be added soon.

"With AGBR (AG Brazil), we're not only proud of the quality of our outstanding members—we're also excited to be leading the way with another innovative approach to scale and geographic coverage in an important strategic market. AGBR (AG Brazil) reaffirms our focus on client-centric service, uniting growth-minded firms to help them bring their clients the world-class solutions Allinial Global is known for."
