Allinial Global Members Recognized as Top 50 Construction Accounting Firms

ATLANTA, GEORGIA August 18, 2021 — Allinial Global is pleased to share that four of its member firms have been named Top 50 Construction Accounting Firms by Construction Executive, a leading trade magazine for construction businesses.

For the 2021 ranking of the Top 50 Construction Accounting Firms, Construction Executive surveyed hundreds of accounting firms with dedicated construction practices. They considered 2020 revenues and percentage of total firm revenues from the construction practice, the number of CPAs and CCIFP-certified employees in the construction practice, number of construction clients in 2020, number of office locations with a construction accounting practice, and the year the construction accounting practice was established.

Congratulations to the member firms recognized on this year's list!
