Allinial Global Named Rising Star Association

ATLANTA, GEORGIA November 5, 2021 — Allinial Global is pleased to announce that it has been named Rising Star Association by The Accountant and International Accounting Bulletin at the 2021 Digital Accountancy Forum & Awards program.

Every year the Digital Accountancy Forum & Awards program celebrates excellence, innovation, and thought leadership in global accountancy. The Rising Star Association award recognizes an association that has demonstrated exceptional growth, entrepreneurial flair, and innovation in elevating its delivery of services and position in the market.

Allinial Global was noted for its strategic focus on transformation and implementation of initiatives that help independent accounting and consulting firms improve their future-readiness and adapt their strategy to thrive in a changing profession.

The 2021 Rising Star Association Award marks the third time Allinial Global has been honored in this prestigious global awards program, after winning the title of Association of the Year in 2018 and Rising Star Association in 2019.

"It's an honor to be named Rising Star Association and to be recognized for our team's commitment to executing a comprehensive and ambitious strategic plan. A lot of hard work has gone into our effort to redefine Allinial Global as a partner in transformation, and I look forward to seeing even more exciting developments to come as we continue to focus on helping our members strategize, scale up, and move forward as future-ready firms."
