Allinial Global Named Rising Star Association

ATLANTA, GEORGIA October 4, 2019 — After winning Association of the Year in 2018, Allinial Global is pleased to announce that it has been named Rising Star Association by The Accountant and International Accounting Bulletin at the 2019 Digital Accountancy Forum & Awards program.

Every year The Accountant and International Accounting Bulletin organize a panel of independent judges to review contestants in 19 award categories that celebrate excellence, innovation, and thought leadership in the global accountancy market. The 2019 finalists and winners were announced at a gala celebration at the Waldorf Hilton in London on October 3, 2019.

The Rising Star Association award recognizes an association that has demonstrated exceptional growth, entrepreneurial flair, and innovation in elevating its position in the market. Allinial Global was selected as Rising Star Association for its successful execution of strategic growth plans and commitment to developing groundbreaking, client-centric solutions that help independent accounting firms thrive in today's highly competitive market. This unique approach is part of a long-term strategy that has helped the association strengthen its reputation as an industry disruptor, expand geographic coverage into 74 countries throughout the world, and increase collective revenues to over $3.5 billion.

"We are thrilled to be bringing home high honors again as Rising Star Association, and I am so proud of our team and their outstanding work over the past year. It's not easy to balance rapid growth with client-focused solutions and exceptional quality, but we are committed to setting a high bar for the client-centric model in the accounting industry."
