Allinial Global Named a Finalist for Two International Awards

ATLANTA, GEORGIA August 17, 2018 — Allinial Global is pleased to announce that it has been named as a finalist in two categories within the 2018 Digital Accountancy Forum & Awards program organized each year by global publications The Accountant and International Accounting Bulletin.

Allinial Global appears among the final contenders for Association of the Year, which recognizes the execution of profitable growth strategies and consistent delivery of high-quality professional services, and for Rising Star Association, which honors exceptional growth, entrepreneurial flair, and innovation.

The Accountant and International Accounting Bulletin Awards are judged each year by an independent industry panel, and 2018 marks the sixth consecutive year for the awards program that celebrates excellence in the accounting profession.

The judges' decision will be announced at an awards gala taking place in London on October 4, 2018.

"We're thrilled to be shortlisted as a finalist for these prestigious awards and proud to be counted among the world's finest and fastest growing global accounting associations. I've often said that Allinial Global is good, getting better, and becoming the best, and qualifying as a finalist for these awards is evidence that we are moving closer and closer to that goal."
