Allinial Global Reaches $3 Billion in Collective Revenues

ATLANTA, GEORGIA January 31, 2019 — After crossing the $2 billion mark midway through 2017, Allinial Global is pleased to announce that its collective revenues now exceed $3 billion USD.

This important milestone follows a year of exceptional growth; in 2018 Allinial Global welcomed 30 new firms to its membership and expanded geographic coverage into 67 countries and 189 firms throughout the world. In the midst of this expansion, the association's industry-disrupting strategy and dedication to client service attracted the attention of global publications The Accountant and International Accounting Bulletin, who selected Allinial Global as their 2018 Association of the Year.

Now at the start of its 50th anniversary year, the association expects to see continued growth in 2019. Having recently welcomed several large and highly regarded new member firms, Allinial Global continues to refine its global strategy and strengthen its presence, reputation, and leadership in key locations and economic centers across the globe.

"We're thrilled to kick off the new year with such an important milestone and more inspired than ever to raise the bar in 2019. I couldn't be prouder of our team and outstanding member firms who work hard to make sure Allinial Global shines as the most member-driven and client-focused association in the world."
