Allinial Global Welcomes Two New Members

ATLANTA, GEORGIA April 14, 2020 — Allinial Global is pleased to welcome two new members in its EMEIA region, Falcon Group and The Professionals for Consulting Services.

Falcon Group – Vienna, Austria

Based in Vienna, Austria, with additional locations in Prague, Bratislava, and Budapest, Falcon Group is particularly strong in cross-border expertise pertaining to international tax and social security issues. Offering comprehensive and integrated services, Falcon's multidisciplinary team specializes in one-stop solutions for tax consulting, financial reporting, bookkeeping, payroll accounting, and auditing, serving medium-sized businesses and subsidiaries of global and listed companies.

The Professionals for Consulting Services – Sharq, Kuwait

Established in 2017, The Professionals for Consulting Services is a growing firm that provides a variety of business, tax, and IFRS advisory services to its clients. With experience in industries ranging from telecommunications and investments to manufacturing and retail, they serve a client base of small and medium-sized private and family businesses, as well as public companies listed on Kuwait's stock exchange, Boursa Kuwait.

"As Allinial Global continues to grow and evolve, the addition of high-quality member firms remains central to our strategy of providing increased commerce and connectivity. We are proud to be building a global membership that offers members more and more value through access to broader services, deeper niche expertise, and more complete geographic coverage."
