Allinial Global Welcomes Three New Members

ATLANTA, GEORGIA February 2, 2018 — Allinial Global is pleased to announce that it has recently welcomed three new member firms: CW CPA in Hong Kong, Moollan & Moollan in Mauritius, and TP Legal, S.C in Mexico.

CW CPA – Hong Kong

CW CPA is a professional advisory firm with offices strategically located in Hong Kong, Shenzhen, Guangzhou, and Shanghai, as well as Barcelona and London. Serving a variety of small and medium-sized enterprises both overseas and from mainland China, the firm offers a wealth of industry-specific expertise and a comprehensive, client-centered approach rooted in quality, connectivity, and trust.

Moollan & Moollan – Port Louis, Mauritius

With offices in Mauritius, Geneva, and London, Moollan & Moollan is a traditional accounting firm providing assurance, tax, accountancy, corporate finance, startup advisory, immigration, trademark registration, and outsourcing services to a variety of small and medium-sized clients. The firm recently launched PCL Legal Services, a management company licensed to serve the business needs of international clients using Mauritius as an investment platform.

TP Legal, S.C. – Tijuana, Mexico

TP Legal is a law firm of attorneys with over 50 years combined experience handling business transactions and operations for clients ranging from single-location operations to complex international operations involving multiple parties and jurisdictions. Their clientele consists primarily of foreign-owned companies doing business in Mexico in a broad array of industry sectors, including real estate, tourism, foreign trade, banking, and governmental relations.

The association is looking forward to a year of continued growth, with nine additional membership applications currently in process spanning from Africa and Asia to Latin America.

“We are pleased to welcome these new members and look forward to seeing how they will help us expand the association’s geographic reach and broaden the range of specializations and skill sets represented within the Allinial Global community.”
