Allinial Global Welcomes New Member Fernández Secco & Asociados

ATLANTA, GEORGIA June 11, 2020 — Allinial Global is pleased to welcome a new member firm, Fernández Secco & Asociados.

Located in Montevideo, Uruguay's capital city, Fernández Secco & Asociados is a well-established firm with forty years of experience and vast knowledge of the local market. Highly regarded for its professionalism and quality of services, the firm's well-rounded team includes lawyers, accountants, consultants, engineers, public notaries, and intellectual property agents who assist clients with a broad range of services.

Serving numerous industry sectors and a client base of small to medium-sized enterprises, Fernández Secco offers significant niche expertise in agriculture and aeronautics, as well as extensive experience in international engagements ranging from tax and advisory services to due diligence and transfer pricing.

The firm also has an entire team dedicated specifically to intellectual property. Its services have been recognized by Chambers and Partners, The Legal 500, and World Trademark Review.

"I'm pleased to welcome our newest member and confident that Fernández Secco & Asociados will bring significant value to the Allinial Global community through their broad range of specialized capabilities, international experience, and focus on personalized service."
