Allinial Global Welcomes New Member Jakob & Sozien

ATLANTA, GEORGIA December 23, 2020 — Allinial Global is pleased to welcome a new member in its EMEIA region, Jakob & Sozien.

Headquartered in Baunatal in the central German province of Hesse, Jakob & Sozien also has a growing office in Berlin. Offering services for audit, tax consulting, accounting, and corporate finance, the firm has significant specialty expertise in digital accounting services, construction and logistics, corporate finance, and venture capital.

Jakob & Sozien also has extensive experience working with start-up companies from industry sectors such as high tech, software, biotech, internet services, and manufacturing. The firm recently established a start-up hub, and it also has an international desk devoted to the needs of international clients and foreign branches of German clients.

Skilled in German, English, and seven additional languages, the staff at Jakob & Sozien is well equipped to assist with international engagements and committed to ensuring client success.

"I'm pleased to welcome Jakob & Sozien to our membership and confident that their unique capabilities will make them a valuable addition to Allinial Global. As we continue to target key economic centers around the world, their membership helps us complete an important piece of our growth strategy, and we are happy to have them aboard."
