Allinial Global Welcomes New Member Firm Weaver

ATLANTA, GEORGIA December 3, 2020 — Allinial Global is pleased to welcome a new North American member firm, Weaver, a national CPA and advisory firm based in Texas with offices on both coasts. With comprehensive capabilities and an international focus, Weaver is currently ranked #35 in both INSIDE Public Accounting's Top 50 and Accounting Today's Top 100.

With seven offices in Texas and additional locations in New York, Oklahoma, and California, Weaver has 750 team members, including 112 partners. In addition to comprehensive services for tax and assurance, the firm offers a wide array of advisory services, including risk advisory, IT advisory, energy compliance, forensics and litigation, transaction advisory, valuation, financial institutions consulting, and public company services.

Weaver serves a broad range of clients, from individuals, estates, and trusts to Fortune 500 companies. Other clients include middle-market companies, not-for-profit and government entities, and investment funds. Weaver prides itself on delivering client-focused, industry-specific service. Its top areas of industry knowledge and experience are energy, government, investment funds, manufacturing and distribution, retail, higher education, health care, real estate, technology, construction, and hospitality.

"We're thrilled to welcome Weaver to the Allinial Global membership, especially as we continue to pursue a strategic focus on increasing commerce for our member firms. Weaver's international focus, extensive industry knowledge, and far-ranging service capabilities make them an excellent fit for our worldwide community of best-in-class firms."
