Allinial Global Announces New Partnership with ACCA

ATLANTA, GEORGIA March 16, 2020 — Allinial Global is pleased to announce an exciting new partnership with ACCA (the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants), a global body for professional accountants offering business-relevant, first-choice qualifications to 219,000 members and 527,000 students across 179 countries.

Both ACCA and Allinial Global are committed to helping independent accounting and consulting firms increase their knowledge and skills within the finance industry. Their partnership brings Allinial Global members a wealth of additional options for professional development and continuing education by making ACCA's online courses and recorded webinars available for purchase through AG Learning Powered by Prolaera, the association's learning management system.

Speaking on the new partnership, Reza Ali, Director of Professional Education at ACCA, said, "We're delighted to collaborate with Allinial Global to provide their members with greater learning support, and we look forward to exploring the many exciting prospects this partnership will offer in the future."

Allinial Global members can now purchase ACCA course material from over 20 different topics, with plans to add new courses throughout the year.

"Outstanding educational tools are integral to our vision of creating a one-stop shop for all our members' learning needs. We are thrilled to be partnering with ACCA to help Allinial Global members satisfy continuing education requirements while building the competencies they need to lead in a competitive, rapidly changing industry."
