Allinial Global Launches New Division, AG AdvantEdge

ATLANTA, GEORGIA January 4, 2019 — Allinial Global is pleased to announce the launch of AG AdvantEdge, a new division for early stage or entrepreneurial smaller firms. With an emphasis on growth, this new division will help members scale up their operations and compete more effectively upstream.

AG AdvantEdge provides members with a comprehensive suite of resources, including technical tools, learning and development options, and valuable opportunities for networking. More importantly, it connects members to a best-in-class peer group where they can share best practices, exchange technical expertise, and seek the support of larger Allinial Global firms for operational and management issues.

For more information on our new division, please contact one of our member relations specialists, Susan Rhodes (Domestic) or Lara Joseph (International).

“These are exciting times for Allinial Global, and we are thrilled to introduce yet another innovative approach to connecting independent firms with resources and peers who help them grow, compete, and thrive. When members collaborate to provide the best possible service and solutions, it’s a win-win for members and clients alike.”

—Terry Snyder, President and CEO, Allinial Global
